

I am writing to you to urge you to reject the NAB's petition 04-160. Satellite radio is a service that I pay for and it is not right to think that the FCC should be able to dictate what kind of programing is available to its subscribers. The traffic and weather information I get from my satellite provider is timely and accurate and not available elsewhere.

Thank you for your time.

-John Stark